

"The Southernmost Bakery in the USA"

Larissa Bracken

Aloha

I created a collage called "Aloha" to capture the beauty and culture of my trip to Hawaii. It features hibiscus and ipomoea flowers, tiki statues, the Southernmost Bakery in the USA, a manta ray, and a seashell. The vibrant colors of the flowers pop out with the natural warm toned background. The tiki statues and manta ray stand out as focal points, while the flowers create rhythm. This collage highlights the stunning scenery, rich culture, and memorable experience of my trip.
